

Table of Contents

Succession Planning for Farmers, Ranchers, and Foresters

Lesson 1

- Introduction: Introduction to Succession Planning
- Part 1: Lesson 1 Introduction
- Part 2: Dare to Dream... A Successful Transition
 - Worksheet 1: Dare to Dream Exercise: A Successful Transition
- Part 3: Create a Description of Your Business
 - Worksheet 2: Description of Your Farm, Ranch, or Forestry Business

Lesson 2

- Part 1: Building Your Transition Team
- Part 2: Transition Team Interview Questions
 - Worksheet 3: Building Your Transition Team: Interview Form

Lesson 3

- Part 1: Creating Your Transition Timeline
- Part 2: Family Farm, Ranch, or Forestry Tree
 - Worksheet 4: Family Farm, Ranch, or Forestry Tree
- Part 3: The 100 List
 - Worksheet 5: The 100 List: Important Documents

Lesson 4

- Part 1: Taking the First Steps

About

This free video and worksheet series was created by Diana Tourney, with funding support from the Clackamas, Tualatin, and East Multnomah Soil and Water Conservation Districts. For support or more information, contact your local Soil and Water Conservation District below.

Clackamas Soil and Water Conservation District	Jason Faucera, Land Management Program Manager (503) 210-6013 jfaucera@conservationdistrict.org https://conservationdistrict.org
East Multnomah Soil and Water Conservation District	Matt Shipkey, Land Legacy Program Manager (503) 935-5374 matt@emswcd.org https://emswcd.org
Tualatin Soil and Water Conservation District	Nicole Ruggiero, Rural Conservation Program Manager (971) 371-0097 nicole.ruggiero@tualatinswcd.org https://tualatinswcd.org